Naples, October 26. On Friday laſt, about half an Hour paſt Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, a very ſenſible Shock of an Earthquake was felt in this City and its Neighbourhood. It laſted near a Minute, but has done no conſiderable Damage. Yeſterday there was a brilliant Appearance at Court on Account of its being the Birth-Day of the Queen Dowager of Spain. The ſame Day the King's five Chebecks returned into this Port from a Cruize of ſeveral Months, without having taken any Prize. The Court's Return from Portici to this Capital remains fixed for the 3d of next Month.

Continuation of the Journal of the Camp at Budin, from the 27th of October to the 5th of November.

The 27th, His Excellency Marſhal Brown took Poſſeſſion of Auſſig, which the Enemy had abandoned; and Colonel Vehla, with a Body of Croats, was poſted there. At the ſame Time the greateſt Part of our Troops had Orders to paſs the Elbe at Tetſchen, to fall on the Rear Guard of the Enemy, which was accordingly put in Execution, and they killed ſeveral, and took ſome Priſoners, beſides Baggage.

The 28th, General Hadik advanced with the Huſſars and Croats towards Peterſvald, the Enemy having retired from thence, and he took Poſſeſſion of it.

The 29th, Lieutenant Colonel Macheligot advanced towards the Rear Guard of the Enemy, which conſiſted of 4000 Men, with eight Pieces of Cannon. He attacked their Camp with 300 Croats, and the Enemy defended themſelves by the Aſſiſtance of their Cannon; but Colonel Vehla coming up with 500 Croats to ſuſtain the Attack of Macheligot, they obliged the Enemy to retire, with the Loſs of near 200 killed and wounded, beſides a great Number of Oxen, Horſes, and Baggage, which the Pruſſians were obliged to abandon to the Croats. We can't enough praiſe the Courage and Conduct with which theſe two Officers conducted this Enterprize, notwithſtanding the great Inequality of Forces, and the Advantage of the Enemy's Cannon.

The 30th and 31ſt, We recalled the Detachments that had been ſent into the Circles of Satz and Leitmaritz, to oppoſe the Enemy in their Foraging and Exactions. By the good and wiſe Diſpoſitions of our Chief, and the determined Bravery of our Troops, the Enemy, after having been drove from Poſt to Poſt, and harraſſed Day and Night, without Victuals or Forage, were at laſt obliged to abandon all Bohemia.

Some Days ago the Enemy ſpread a Report that they deſigned to enter into Bohemia with a Body of Troops by Zittau and Gabel, but the Marſhal having ordered General Lacy, with ſome Battalions, and ſeveral Companies of Granadiers, beſides Huſſars and Croats, to Jung Bunzlau, and Lieutenant Colonel Lauden, with 800 Croats, to advance towards Gabel and Romburg, they thought proper to defer the Execution of their Deſign, and take up their Quarters at Zittau, Lobau, and Gerliz. General Perroni has been ſent from hence with Diſpatches

Diſpatches of the greateſt Conſequence to Vienna, from whence we ſoon expect to receive freſh Orders.

As the Pruſſians retired from Bohemia, General Hadik always followed and harraſſed them. He has taken many Priſoners, and a great deal of Baggage. The Deſertion of the Enemy is greater than ever.

The 1ſt of November, Marſhal Brown publiſhed, by Order of the Court, a Promotion made by her Imperial Majeſty, in Conſequence of which, General Macquire has been named Lieutenant General, and the Colonels Baron Butler, Count Warben, and Baron Unrukegraux, Majors General.

The 2d, Arrived at the Army, Lieutenant General Clerici, and the Majors General Prince Hokenzolleren, and the Baron of Bregſal.

The 3d, General Brown ſent from the Army, towards the Borders of Saxony, Major General Wolfferſdorff, with ſix Battalions, as many Companies of Grenadiers, and 12 Pieces of Cannon; likewiſe Colonel Gourcy with 600 Horſe.

The 4th, His Excellency ſent General Lucheſi, with Diſpatches of the greateſt Importance to Vienna.

The 5th, We received Advice, that the Enemy had put the greateſt Part of their Troops into Winter Quarters, and that they had only a Body of 4000 Men that are retrenched behind Hollendorff, with ſome Pieces of Cannon. Whereupon our General has formed a Plan to diſlodge them. As ſoon as the bad Weather begins, our Army will go into Quarters of Cantonment. Here are arrived four Battalions and eight Companies of Granadiers of the Regiments of Giulai, Staremberg, and Konigſegg, from Italy. The Reſt of the Troops from Italy are in full March, ſo that the Whole will be aſſembled here by the End of the Month.

Rome, Oct. 30. On the 17th Inſtant, the Princeſs Dowager Colonna died ſuddenly in the Night, at her Country Seat at Albano.

Florence, Nov. 6. On the 22d paſt the Courier, whom the Regency diſpatched ſome Time ago to Vienna, returned from thence. The next Day the Regency had thereupon an Extraordinary Aſſembly, when Major General Herard, Commander in Chief, and M. Stelflin, Commiſſary of the Tuſcan Troops, received the Emperor's Orders for three Battalions and ſix Companies of Grenadiers of Tuſcan Troops to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march for Germany on the firſt Notice. They write from Leghorne, that ſome additional Works are making to the Fortifications of that Place towards the Sea. On the 23d a French Shebeck Privateer chaſed and took, within the Reach of the Cannon of Leghorne, being at moſt at the Diſtance of but one Mile and a half from the Mole, an Engliſh Veſſel called the Hibernia, Capt. Anſon, laden with Pilchards.

Bruſſels, Nov. 16. Prince Charles of Lorrain's Departure for Vienna, ſeems at preſent to be delayed for ſome Time; and it is now ſaid, that his Royal Highneſs will continue here the beſt Part of the Winter. The General Officers, who are to ſerve in the Body of Troops that is marching from the Auſtrian Netherlands, are ſucceſſively ſetting out for Luxembourg, where they are all ordered to be on the 20th Inſtant. Thoſe Troops are to be commanded in Chief by Count d'Arberg, who, it is expected, will be promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant General at his Arrival at Luxembourg. The Marquis Deynſe has been added to the Number of Majors General who are to ſerve in this Corps.
